

4 Courses

Ethics, Culture, and Global Perspectives

Teamwork and Creativity

Organizational Concepts and Language

Leadership

Mar 20, 2025

JACK HARBESON HAGLER

has successfully completed the online, non-credit Specialization

Professional Success Skills

The Professional Success Skills Specialization from Gies College of Business at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign teaches and develops skills that can support an individual in achieving success in any organization. These skills enable success in a first job and also ensure that first job is the start of a long, successful career. This specialization focuses on developing the following skills: (1) ability to recognize ethical dimensions and dilemmas in organizational decision-making; (2) engage in more creative problem-solving; (3) succeed in a team environment; (4) communicate with other members of the organization; and (5) appreciate and exhibit leadership.

W. Brooke Elliott
Associate Dean and EY
Professor
Gies College of Business

The online specialization named in this certificate may draw on material from courses taught on-campus, but the included courses are not equivalent to on-campus courses. Participation in this online specialization does not constitute enrollment at this university. This certificate does not confer a University grade, course credit or degree, and it does not verify the identity of the learner.

Verify this certificate at:

<https://coursera.org/verify/specialization/HBAF7M18P369>